Fantasy Of The Sea

Pride And Prejudice

This year the seniors presented the classic play, "Pride and Prejudice." Mrs. Bennett (Beverly Parker) was an unpredictable, flighty mother who tried to get husbands for her five attractive daughters. BELOW, LEFT: Mrs. Bennett urges Mr. Bingley (John Morgan) to take a stroll in the garden with her oldest daughter Jane (Cara Lynne Johnson). Miss Bingley (Gaynelle Beasley) is not happy with the situation. BELOW, RIGHT: Mrs. Bennett is shocked to discover that Charlotte Lucas (Joyce Bass) is engaged to a gentleman she wanted Elizabeth (Brenda Dunn) to marry.

FTA

The first project of the Future Teachers this year was to observe and assist members of the school faculty during their free time. Not only did this help them gain experience in practice teaching, but it helped them decide if they really would be interested in becoming a teacher for some future time. Their advisor is Mr. George Wilson.
